Dear JSRI editors,

I would like to thank you for the corrections on my paper. Please find attached my correction article and agreement for publication and copyright Assignment.

My corrections as below:

Page 4, line "There is Heidegger's critique of "the god according to philosophy" or the God in metaphysics - which for him, must be abandoned" to be replaced with "According to Joseph J. Kockelmans, there is Heidegger's critique of "the god according to philosophy" or the God in metaphysics - which for him, must be abandoned."

Page 5, line "In fact, Derrida deconstructs the binary assumption of Western thought that has prioritized spoken language over writing". I agree for the correction.

Page 14, line "Derrida has a radical faith, but he does not become a fundamentalist". I agree for the correction.

Page 15, line "Heidegger ??" To be deleted.

Page 15, line "Vries, Hent de. 1999. Philosophy and the Turn to Religion, The Johns Hopkins University Press: Baltimore and London." To be deleted.

Page 15, to be added in references line "Kockelmans, Joseph J. 1965. Martin Heidegger: A First Introduction to His Philosophy, Duquesne University Press: Pittsburgh.

Thank you for your corrections. There is one correction that you probably suggested by mistake. It refers to the book by de Vries. We cannot delete the reference, as you directly quote the book in your article. You quote "a movement toward God, toward a word or the name of God" which is found at page 24 in the book of de Vries. Therefore, we will not delete that reference.

Best regards,

Dear JSRI editors,

Thank you for noticing me.

There are any differences for the year of publishing and publisher. I refer to "de Vries, Hent. 2019. Philosophy and the Turn to Religion, Johns Hopkins University Press: Baltimore, Maryland" instead of "Vries, Hent de. 1999. Philosophy and the Turn to Religion, The Johns Hopkins University Press: Baltimore and London".

Would you please add or revise to the edited version?

Best regards,
